THE COLLECT

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and all the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSON Nehemiah 8:2-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden pulpit which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam on his left hand. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people; and when he opened it all the people stood. And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God; and all the people answered, “Amen, Amen,” lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, the Levites, helped the people to understand the law, while the people remained in their places. And they read from the book, from the law of God, clearly; and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading. And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.” For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, “Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

PSALM 113

7:30 am and 8:45 am Psalm is to be said responsively.

10:45 am Psalm: Cantor sings refrain. Then the people repeat.

REFRAIN

I will bless your name for e - ver, my God and King.

- 1 Hallelujah!
Give praise, you servants of the Lord; *
praise the Name of the Lord.
 - 2 Let the Name of the Lord be blessed, *
from this time forth for evermore. (All sing refrain.)
 - 3 From the rising of the sun to its going down *
let the Name of the Lord be praised.
 - 4 The Lord is high above all nations, *
and his glory above the heavens. (All sing refrain.)
 - 5 Who is like the Lord our God, who sits enthroned on high * but stoops to behold the heavens and the earth?
 - 6 He takes up the weak out of the dust * and lifts up the poor from the ashes. (All sing refrain.)
 - 7 He sets them with the princes, *
with the princes of his people.
 - 8 He makes the woman of a childless house * to be a joyful mother of children. (All sing refrain.)
- (Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit
As it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.)

EPISTLE 1 Corinthians 12:12-27

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. For the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? But as it is, God arranged the organs in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single organ, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” On the contrary, the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those parts of the body which we think less honorable we invest with the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior part, that there may be no discord in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

THE ALLELUIA

All stand. Cantor sings:

All repeat alleluia. Cantor sings versicle. All repeat alleluia.

THE GOSPEL Luke 4:14-21

Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and a report concerning him went out through all the surrounding country. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and he went to the synagogue, as his custom was, on the sabbath day. And he stood up to read; and there was given to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened the book and found the place where it was written, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.” And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

Children in grades K-5 leave for Children’s Chapel following the 10:45 am reading of the Gospel.

HAITI RELIEF FUND

Edith Morisseau, a clergy widow, was a long time member of St. Michael's until moving to Michigan several years ago. Her husband Fr. Dumont Morisseau and she spent many years serving parishes in their native land, Haiti. It seems appropriate to pour out love and support for the people of Haiti through a personal connection. Monetary donations will be distributed through the Haiti Outreach Mission, the George Stines Foundation, and the St. Vincent Episcopal School for the Handicapped. I invite you to give your donations now and throughout LENT to this avenue of support. Please make your checks out to St. Michael's Haiti Fund.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR WORK DAY ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6

Here's your chance to help out at St. Michael's! Volunteers are needed to assist the Garden Guild and The Brotherhood of St. Andrew as they spend the day caring for the gardens and grounds around our beautiful church. Begins at 8 am - come for an hour, or stay all day! Refreshments will be provided. Please email dtriver@gmail.com, or call Greg at 760.630.0660 for more information.

LAWN MOWER BRIGADE: HELPERS NEEDED!

Do you enjoy fresh air and exercise? Consider joining the Lawn Mower Brigade! Help keep St. Michael's lawns (and yourself!) in tip-top shape! Contact Ken Orloff for more information at 760.720.9519, or orloff@roadrunner.com.

PARISH PHOTO DIRECTORY - HELPER NEEDED!

We've had a number of requests for a new Parish Directory, with many asking if photos will be included. Parishioner Wayne Wright has arranged for a volunteer photographer to take photos of families and individuals, but he would like some help setting up schedules for parishioner photo sessions. If you are willing to help out, please contact Wayne at cbwayne@cwnet.com, or 760.434.7245. It will be exciting to have a photo directory once again here at St. Michael's!

SPONSORS NEEDED FOR THE MESSENGER

Do you (or someone you know) own a business? Consider promoting your business each month by advertising in St. Michael's monthly Messenger! Please call C & M Publishing at 951.683.0608. We need new sponsors, as several sponsors have chosen to discontinue their ads for this coming year due to the impact the struggling economy has had on their business. If we don't find new sponsors, we may have to print The Messenger in-house (greatly increasing our costs), or reduce the number printed and send a printed issue only to those who cannot receive an electronic issue via email.

ANGELIC GIFT & CARD SHOP

We have a fresh supply of the book referred to by Fr. Kraft in recent Adult Forum sessions: Early Christian Writings: The Apostolic Fathers. The cost of the book is $14. (If you recently purchased one of these books and left it behind in Ede Hall, please see Yvonne Kuchler at the Gift Shop.)

Also, beautiful European photo note cards with prayers for Europe on the back are available! The photos were taken by Laura Davis, and proceeds from the sale of these cards go to support the ministry of Thadd and Laura Davis with Greater Europe Mission in Germany. Pick up a pack of these note cards, for yourself or to give as a special gift, for only $12.

2009 ANNUAL GIVING STATEMENTS

The 2009 Annual Giving Statements were sent out this past week. If you do not receive your statement by February 1, please call the office at 760.729.8901.

PRAYERFUL STEWARDSHIP

Thank you for your prayerful contributions in 2009. Because of the reduced expenditures and generous giving in December, contributions exceeded adjusted expenditures in 2009. Thanks be to God!

STANDING NOTICES

Pastoral Emergencies

Call 760.729.8901, press 1, leave your phone number and an emergency pager will be activated when you hang up.

Receiving Holy Communion

If you are a baptized Christian and believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, you are welcome to receive Holy Communion. If by intinction (dipping), please allow Chalice Bearers to dip the host in the Chalice. Those not receiving Holy Communion are invited to come to the rail, cross their arms, and receive a blessing.

Holy Communion for Children

The norm in this parish is for all children, Second Grade and up, to attend the First Holy Communion classes with parents during Eastertide, and then be officially admitted to Communion on the Feast of Pentecost. Because of an older tradition that rightly acknowledges that baptized children are full members of the Body of Christ, some children younger than Second Grade are mature enough to receive with an appropriate level of understanding and respect, and may do so at the parents' discretion with the approval of the priest.

Marriages

A "Requirements for Marriage" booklet is available in the tract rack in the Parish Hall, in the office, and on our website. Read the information, fill out the form and send it in to the office, and one of the priests will respond to discuss preparation and arrangements.

Baptism for Infants and Young Children

A "Baptism for Infants and Young Children" booklet is available in the tract rack in the Parish Hall, in the office, and on our website. Attendance on Sundays and at a Baptism class is required. Baptisms are primarily held on major feast days throughout the year during the Holy Eucharist. Other options are available according to pastoral circumstances.

Flower and Sanctuary Light Memorials

Envelopes are available in the back of the Church/Chapel, at the Gazebo and in Ede Hall. Please follow the instructions on the envelope and deposit the envelope at the Gazebo, or place in the mailbox outside the office door and raise the red flag.

Burial

Burial preparation booklets are available in the tract racks in the Parish Hall, in the office, and on our website.

Holy Unction

The laying on of hands, sealing with holy oil, and prayer is the outward sign of God's promise to make His people whole. Coming to Him in faith and expectation is the proper attitude of healing prayer. You may come for your own healing or on behalf of another on the first and third Sunday of each month after Holy Communion.
